

1 I interpret it, that the legislature would have a right
2 to say in a procedural way, how this right should be 3 exercised, almost like the ownership of land.

4 You have the right to own land but the legislature
5 certainly has the right to decide the use of it.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: I think I know what Delegate
7 Miller was driving at. Let me see if this would carry 8 out your suggestion; if before the word in line 7, Dele-
9 gate Miller, you inserted the words "and the exercise of 10 such right", and then went on, would that be the point
11 that you are making?

12 DELEGATE JAMES: Yes.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Miller?

14 DELEGATE MILLER: Mr. Chairman, I think at 15 this point I would agree with Delegate Scanlan. I don't 16 think that there is anything in what we did this 17 morning which would preclude the General Assembly from 18 acting.

19 I don't know why we have to say it here. We 20 have not said it in any other rights that we have adopted
21 in the bill of rights. We do not assume that the General
